

Brief description of the program

Profession

Future careers: state civil servant, municipal employee.

Educational process

You will be taught:

- to structure projects of interaction between the state and business;
- to choose models of public-private partnership;
- to conduct economic evaluation of the project;
- to manage project financing risks.

Disciplines

- √ System of state and municipal management,
- √ Theoretical provision of state and municipal management,
- √ Economics of the public sector,
- √ Organizational and management support of state and municipal management,
- √ Economic and legal support of state and municipal management,
- √ Technologies for the development and management of public-private partnership projects,
- √ Political conflict resolution studies and management,
- √ Theory and world practice of public-private partnership projects.

Practice

The students are provided with great opportunities to implement and improve the knowledge and competencies they gain in class through different kinds of practical training, including academic training, work experience internship and research practice in government bodies of the Russian Federation and subjects of the federation; bodies of local self-government; state and municipal enterprises and institutions and non-governmental organizations.

Career

Graduates can work in government bodies of the Russian Federation and its subjects; bodies of local self-government; state and municipal enterprises and institutions; non-governmental organizations; international organizations and international governing bodies.